

Men's Coffee Group
Minutes of the May 28, 2013 Meeting

There were two planned presentations.

The first was three members of the local Toastmasters Clubs and residents of VillageWalk. Robert Resso gave us his reasons for joining Toastmasters. He wanted to get experience speaking before a large group and the opportunity to plan, organize and lead a local organization. He got his experience and leader training at Toastmasters.

Rene Svoboda was in hardware / software sales. He needed to improve his presentation skills so he selected Toastmasters to give him guidance.

Rob Glassner told the group the steps Toastmasters uses to improve the members speaking and presentation abilities.

- a. Preparation and speaking
- b. Evaluation
- c. Impromptu talks

The reasons to join a club: was to learn how to work in a club and how to listen.

The second speaker was Pod Pipper. He has a service that converts images to DVD. The images can be on old 35mm slides, 8mm / 16mm / 32mm films, cassettes, VHS, etc. His company is Home Video Studio. He is also a resident of VillageWalk.

John Adams opened the meeting to general discussion. John ask for suggestion for future speakers. Frank Kobel suggested a person he knows that can describe the different diseases that effect plant in our area.
